

Form Play

2-day Riso & Screen Printing Workshop

*25-26.03, NoPoint Atelier,
w/ Miroslav Zhivkov, Dzhingibi*

Experimenting with Dzhingibi is always exciting. Join him for two days of form play – a game in which rules are fluid and your only goal is to learn and see how important experimenting is when it comes to printing. His newly acquired risograph is heating up and waiting for some new players, so join our open call and tag along quickly!

The Location, NoPoint Atelier is a silkscreen and riso printing studio based in an old barn in the Balkan mountains, Bulgaria.

NoPoint Atelier is a shared studio for artists focusing on the printing techniques of serigraphy (screen printing) and risography. It was established in 2018 by artist Miroslav Zhivkov, @dzhingibi, who built it in the barn of an old house hidden in the vast forests of the Balkan mountains. The main goals of the studio are experimentation, exploring and developing analogue techniques and collaborating with fellow artists.

open call application info

- Deadline: 17.03.2023
- Send us your mouse-drawn reproduction of Michelangelo's masterpiece The Creation of Adam

- link to high-res. picture
- 4 people will be selected
- The selected artists will be accommodated in NoPoint Atelier

*Send your masterpiece along with your Instagram profile or portfolio attached to: info@fig.bg
E-mail subject should be „FORM PLAY + your surname“*